Miss Otto and Mrs. Alderson sign attendance sheets at the beginning of the day.

Another hectic day ahead for students as they leave their buses.

Day Begins

Everyone waits until the first bell rings . . .

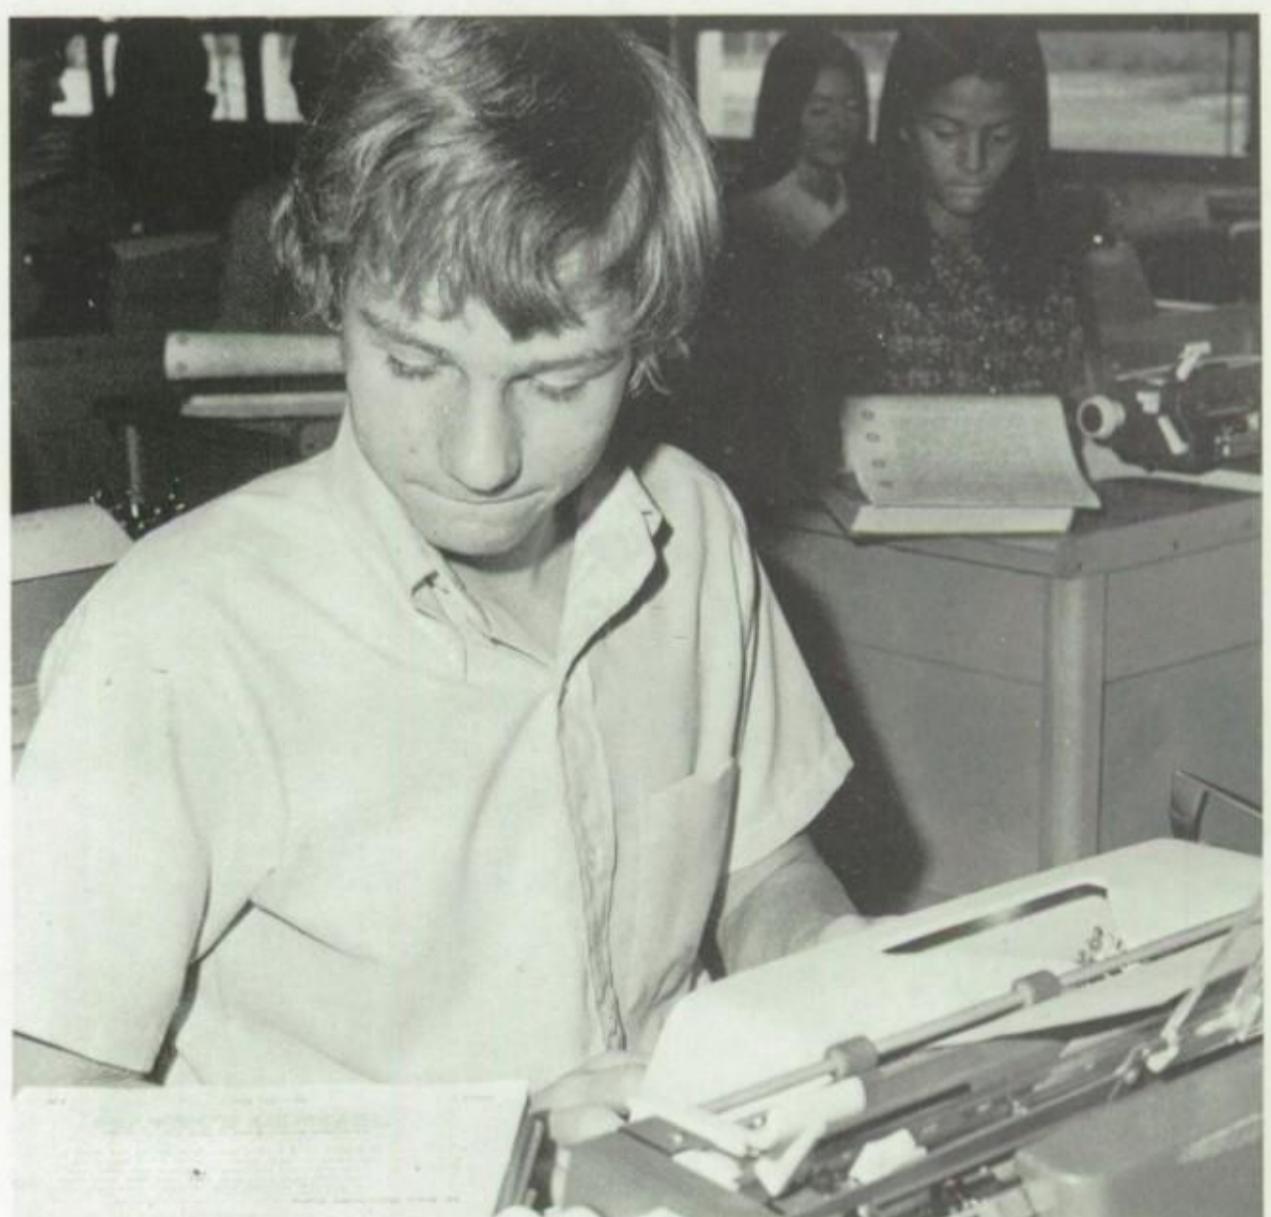

. . . and then the scramble to classes begins.

An Atmosphere of Concentration

Studying the intricacies of a slide rule in chemistry class.

Concentrating on what you're typing makes the timed writings much easier.

Leads to Deeper Understanding

Mr. Weimer's science class responds enthusiastically.

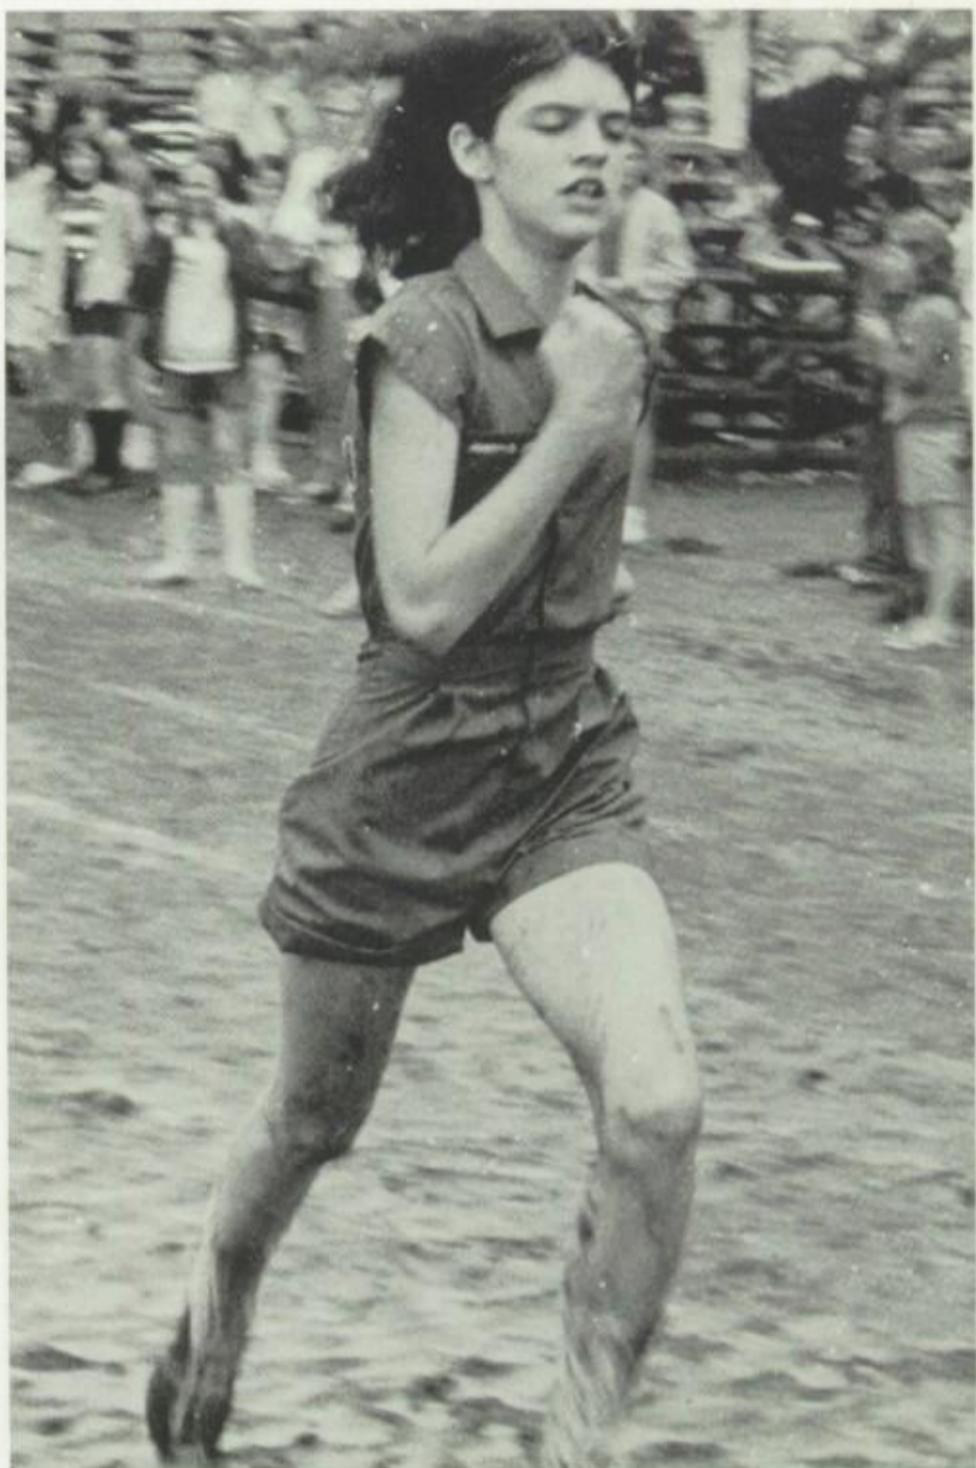

In a tight huddle, the team members consult each other for the details of the next attack.

The pain of explanation: Do I lie or tell the truth?

The Pressures of Daily Life

The struggle for victory shows itself clearly on this runner's face.

Planning is half the battle.

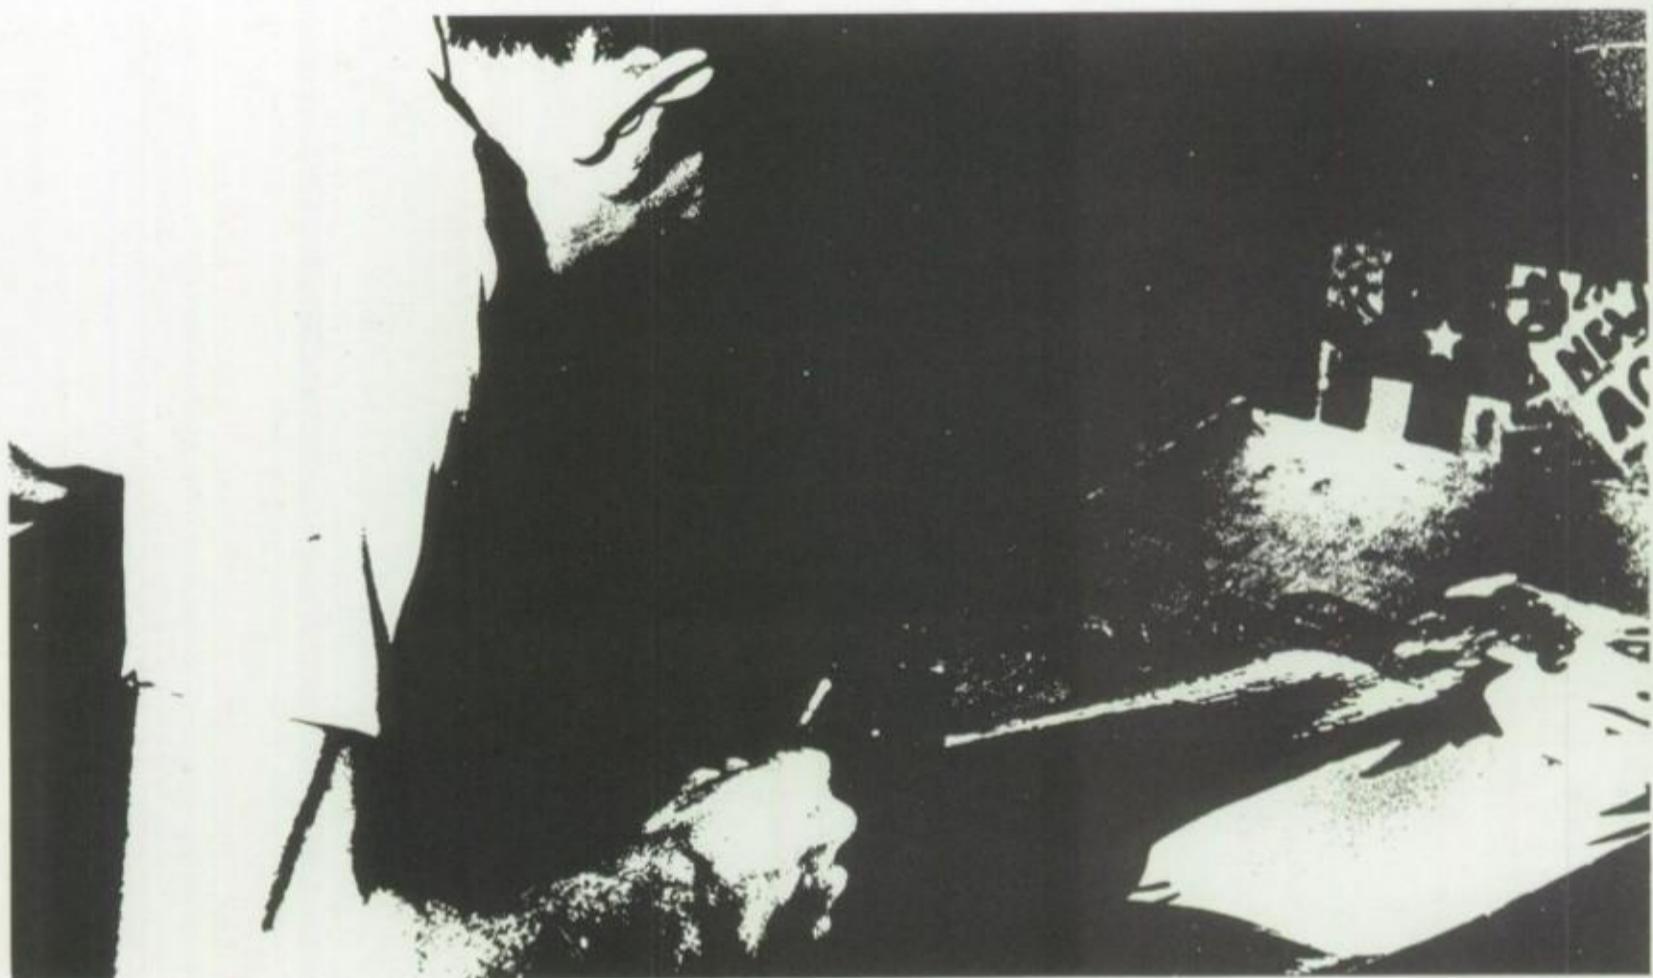

Every spare minute is taken up in working for perfection.

Home Economics students prepare and practice in skills needed for the future.

New Teaching Methods Make Neshannock a “Progressive” School

Dave Boatman works on his latest creation.

Mr. Elder demonstrates the use of the computer to his students.

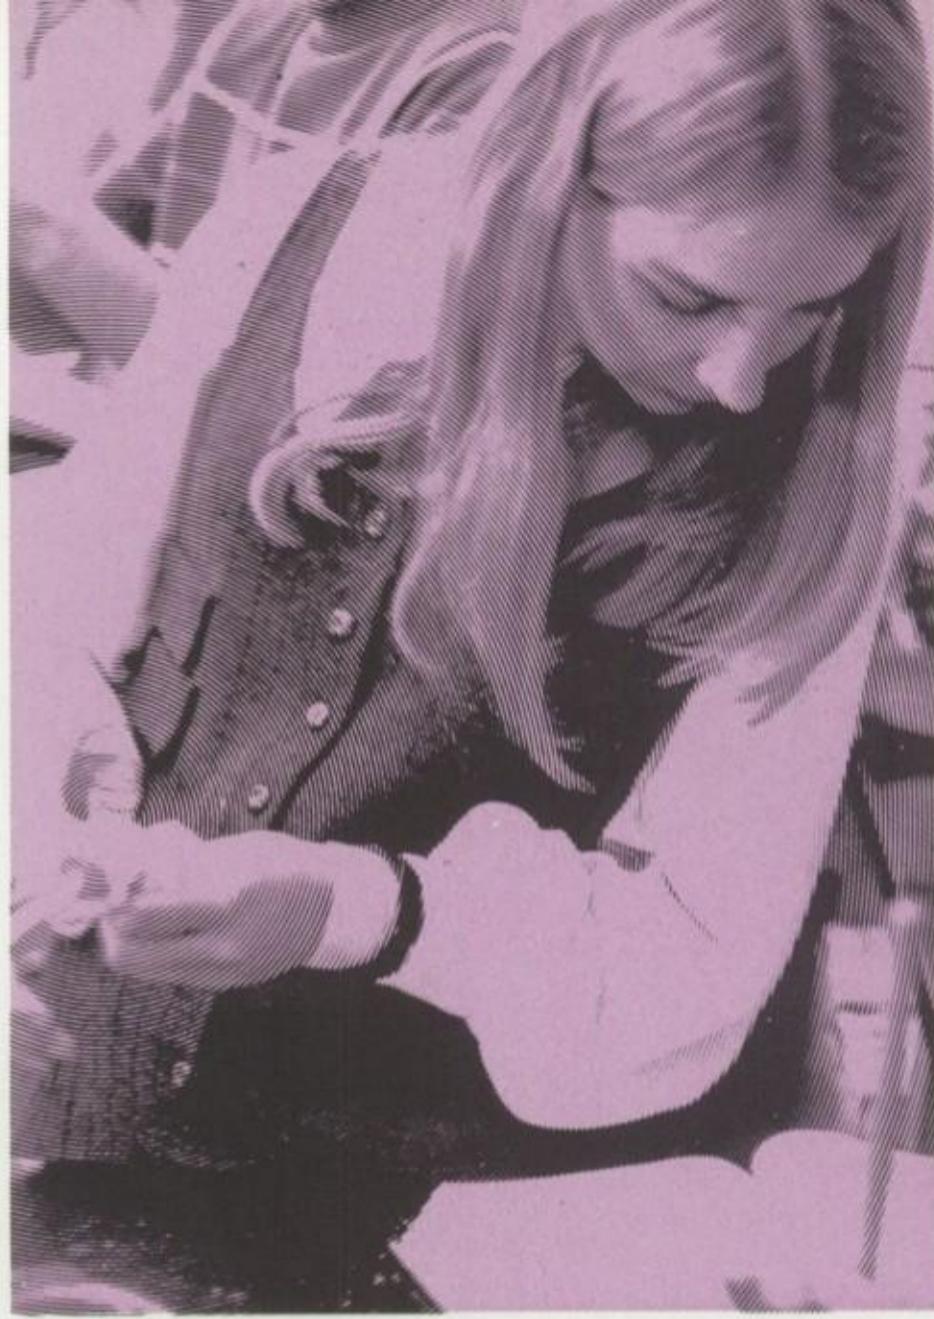

Spanish students work with the "language lab."

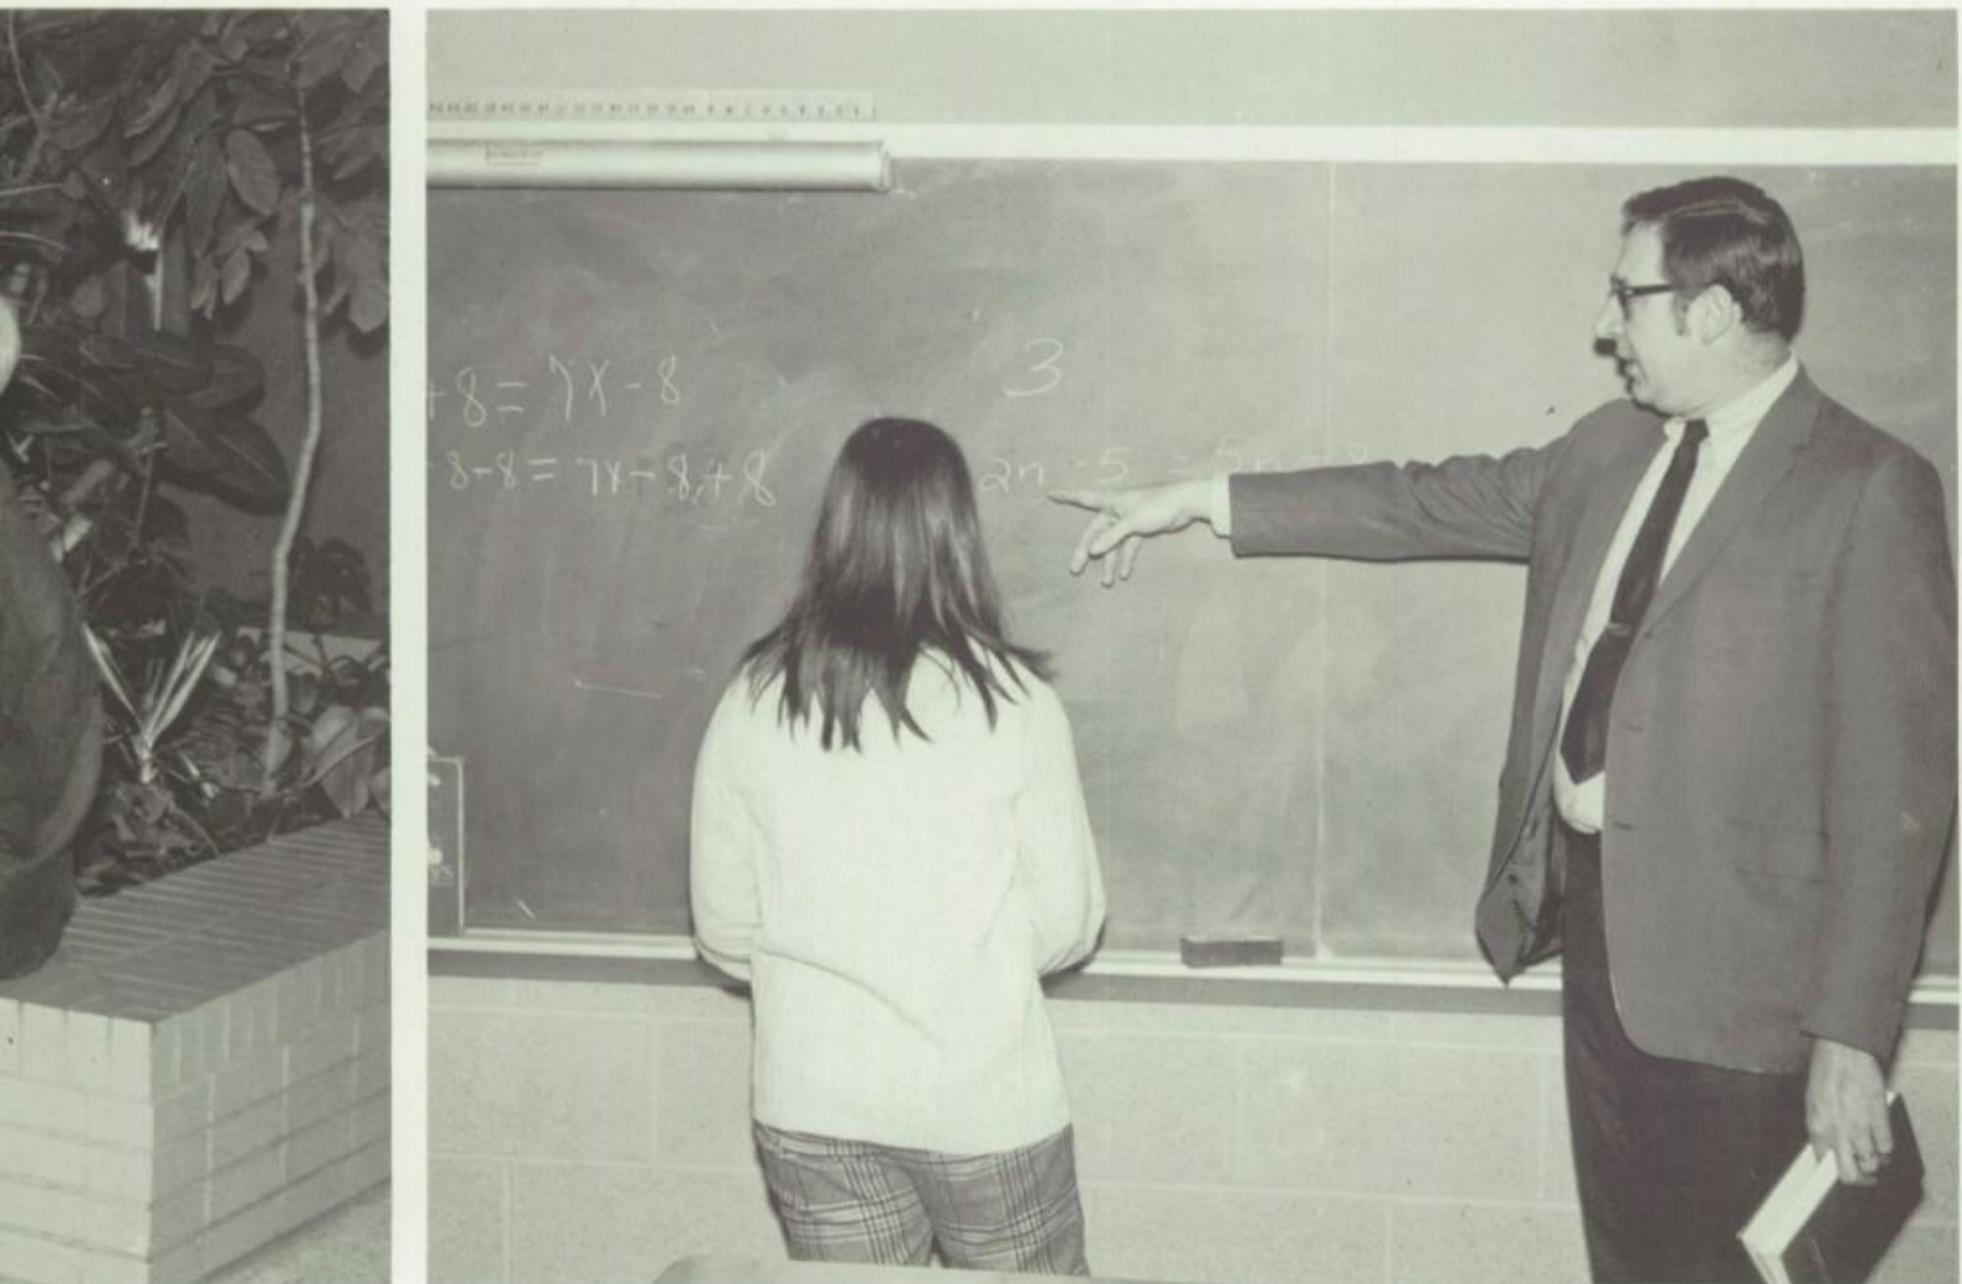

Mark Sansone feeds one of the mice in the "animal lab."

Getting the Point Across

Mark Chabak uses his study hall to practice typing.

STATE

Coaches Bob Brown and Gary Weimer wait in anticipation for the beginning of the crucial race.

Suffering through the moments of agony while waiting for the name of the winners to be announced is senior Ed Halusic.

CHAMPS!!!

On November 7, the Cross Country team traveled to Penn State for their third consecutive year. The pre-race tension and anticipation was at a climax. The boys, the coaches, and all the fans were anxious for the race to start. Finally the time came, and the meet began. At the conclusion of the race the tension once again mounted. The anxiety that followed was almost unbearable. Waiting for the announcement of the winner was intolerable. Finally the scores began to be announced. When half the teams had reported in, we still had the lowest score; however, our two closest competitors had not yet reported their scores. Soon there was only 1 score left to be recorded. The Lancers were trying to suppress their emotions. The last score was announced. They'd done it again. STATE CHAMPS! The crowd was in an uproar. The screams and tears that followed were finally quelled as Mr. Weimer was handed their hard earned trophy.

Dave Cameron (above) and Mark Chabak (below) give an excellent showing for the Lancers. Alan Saginak (at left) uses his final effort and finishes first for the Lancers.

Our Lancer football team struggled against overwhelming odds and went down in defeat several times. This year, Neshannock had one of the smallest teams in our history. Coach Bob Bleggi, aware of this fact, concentrated mainly on defense. The student body, however, is proud of our team and their excellent sportsmanship.

LANCERS Host

Brothers Alan (above) and Tom (right) Saginak, lead the Lancers to victory.

Last year's track team and their new track were host not only for the tri-country track meet, but also for the W.P.I.A.L. Class B. State Qualifier. The Lancers' two mile relay team qualified for state thanks to the expert advice and guidance of Coach Bob Bleggi and, of course, the boys' excellent running. Everyone was thankful for the new track, made of a rubber-asphalt compound, which made running easier and increased speed.

Carmi Zona Chosen As

1970 Homecoming Queen

With her escort, Rick Wadlinger, Carmi Zona is crowned queen by Senior Class President Dennis Massaro.

Cold and windy weather prevailed that October night but no one except the Homecoming candidates seemed to notice it. The time arrived and the traditional ride of the attendants around the field was completed. The Homecoming candidates were introduced and suddenly—"1970 Homecoming Queen Carmi Zona!"

With tears of joy and surprise, Carmi took her traditional ride around the field and then took her seat in the bleachers to view the rest of the game. The unbelievably large crowd and the enthusiasm throughout the game made this a truly memorable event.

Tom Saginak with Junior attendant Marge Hoye, Rick Snow with Senior candidate Martha Moreland, and Queen Carmi Zona escorted by Rick Wadlinger.

"Atlantis"

Juniors Rick Welker, Bev Bishop, Dan Booth, Dave Boatman, and Tom Reeher perform a skit for Atlantis.

On May sixteenth the school cafeteria was transformed into an authentic underwater scene of the lost continent of Atlantis. The windows of the cafeteria were decorated with fish and the many murals made one think he was really underwater. Couples enjoyed a relaxing and beautiful atmosphere while dancing to the music of the talented Graduates. A humorous skit was also performed by members of the Junior Class. Much too quickly the evening came to an end but the memory of it will still linger on.

Senior Linda Shaw and her date dance to the sounds of The Graduates.

Chaperones and students in the fantasy world of Atlantis.

On A Clear Day . . .

Dr. Bruckner (D. Wallace) has an ernest talk with his patient, Daisy (E. Mooney).

E. Jackson, R. Kalajainen, R. Welker, and R. Goclano sing their hearts out—eighteenth century style.

On May 22 and 23 the musical department presented "On a Clear Day . . ." in the high school auditorium. The play deals with a psychiatrist Mark Bruckner (Don Wallace) and his patient Daisy Gamble (Elaine Mooney) who appears to have extraordinary powers. Under hypnosis it is discovered that Daisy existed before in another life as Melinda Welles (Kay Petermeyer). The climax surprised all, and the fine acting and music made this one of the best musicals presented here.

Melinda sings "He Wasn't You" to her lover Edward (Paul Kemp).

Alas, Babylon is All-School Play

What can a family do to survive when almost all of the world has been destroyed by atom bombs? This is what Randy Bragg and his family had to face after The Day. Randy (Bruno DiGiorgi) was given advance warning when his brother Mark (Dan Piccata), a SAC officer, came to leave his wife Helen (Bev Bishop) and children, Ben (Hadden Blair), and Peyton (Joan Shaw) with Randy while he returns to the SAC hole in Omaha. After the blast came, Mrs. Henry (Chris Catalano), Randy's housekeeper, Lib McGovern (Dianne Janis), Admiral Hazzard (Dan Booth), and Dr. Dan Gunn (Mike Sugarman) came to stay with Randy. "Alas, Babylon" concerned itself with how these people managed to live after much of the world was destroyed. Under the great direction of Mr. King, the play proved to be one of the biggest successes ever!

Ben fishes for the family's food supply after The Day.

Mark Bragg and General Harper (Arden McGaffic) discuss possible strategy in The Sac Hole. (above)
Admiral Hazzard, Helen, and Dr. Gunn listen intently to reports on the attacks. (below)

Dan Booth Directs "How to Succeed"

Finch shows his confidence when he sings "I Believe in You."

Tradition was broken this year when Dan Booth, with the assistance of Mr. Frediani, staged the musical "How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying" on March 12 and 13. The story centers around Pierrepont Finch (Dan Booth) and his methods of getting ahead in the World Wide Wicket Company by the use of a book entitled How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying. He meets many people who work at the company, such as its boss J.B. Biggley (Jeff Marlin), Rosemary Pilkington (Bev Bishop), who falls in love with Finch, her friend Smitty (Gail Branscome), and Bud Frump (Fred Dial) who hates Finch from the day he meets him. What resulted from these assorted characters was one of the finest and funniest musicals ever staged at Neshannock!

Finch helps save Mr. Biggley's and the other's jobs when he sings "Brotherhood of Man."

Smitty and the other secretaries plead Rosemary not to give up in "Cinderella, Darling."

"A Child's

EMMY DAUGHERTY CHOSEN 1971 SNOW QUEEN! The beautifully decorated cafeteria, depicting "A Child's Christmas", provided the setting for the annual Snow Ball held the day after Christmas. A large crowd of students and alumni danced to the music of the "John, Mike, and Paul" group and enjoyed the atmosphere and refreshments. Highlighting the evening was the exciting moment when Student Council President Patti Cioffi announced, "The Snow Queen of 1971 is Emmy Daugherty!"

With a happy smile Emmy Daugherty receives the crown from last year's queen Carmi Zona.

Joyce Piccuta and Bob DiLillo dance to the music.

Even the alumni attended the Snow Ball.

Christmas"

Snow Queen candidates were (l-r)—Juniors Mag Hoye, Nettie McClure, and Joan Shaw. Attendants were Kathy Osterling, tenth; Lynn McCann, ninth; Alice Jackson, eighth; and Shelly Koslow, seventh.

George Greene and Chris Carlson swing to the music.

"Ladies and Gentlemen . . ."

Anyone for peanuts, popcorn, and lollipops?

Real clowns and a ringmaster under the "big top" in the popcorn-scented lobby provided the atmosphere for "The Greatest Show on Earth".

While some danced to the music of the Transit Company, others watched the fierce looking animals caged in the showcases, carousels with animal cookies. It was truly an enjoyable evening for all.

The smiling faces of Sue Reed and Jim Donnelly prove it was a delightful evening.

Rick McCracken tries for a prize.

From the depths . . .

On February 27, the senior class spent "An Evening in Hades." Realistically set amid caves, smoke, and Satan himself, the party proved to be an immediate success. Air Canada provided the entertainment for the party which the seniors will remember as their most unusual class party ever.

Seniors enjoy their last class party in the atmosphere of fire and brimstone.

Lancer Marching Band

Band members, under the supervision of Mr. Joseph Kaba, began late in August preparing for the 1970 marching season. Although somewhat hampered by the weather and a muddy field this year, the band put on many outstanding halftime performances. The five majorettes also added to halftime enjoyment with their unusual routines and drills.

Presents Sights and Sounds

Jubilant over a touchdown, the band celebrates with a rousing version of "South Rampart."

Seniors in the Spotlight Scott Kerr, drum major, and Patti Welker, head majorette, performing at halftime.

Musicians Win Honors

Honors Band—Gail Beichner and Dave Strizzi.

Neshannock can be proud of the fine musical qualities exhibited by several of its students. This year N.H.S. was well represented at the Honors and District tryouts and concerts by both vocal and instrumental talents. These students are highly commended for their fine work.

The Many Faces of Band

Pep Band adds to the school spirit at pep rallies and games. Pep Band members—D. Boatman, R. DeAngelis, B. DeLillo, E. Genkinger, G. Knight, L. Koenig, T. Massaro, B. Martin, M. Mooney, J. Riddell, D. Rupp, B. Snyder, D. Spiker, B. Stratton.

The Choral Department

Freshman Girls' Ensemble (l-r)—L. White, J. Fletcher, D. Smith, R. Hadlock, M. Kraus, C. Hamilton, K. Weiner, J. Hosler, G. Massaro, J. Piccuta, L. Buckley, T. Luikart.

The Freshman Girls' Ensemble is a newly formed group this year. They practice on their own time and have become a popular group. Their performances at school assemblies and concerts are a most pleasant addition.

Concert Choir—L. Altman, M. Altman, L. Buckley, L. Catterson, L. Dunlevy, L. Finamore, J. Fletcher, K. Gallagher, D. Gettings, L. Green, R. Hadlock, L. Halackna, B. Hamilton, J. Hosler, A. White.

Concert Choir is a credit course students choose as an elective. They sing a wide variety of music ranging from classical selections to modern songs. This choir also gives the girls experience to help them qualify for A Cappella.

Cheryl Lusk, Peggy Spiker and Bobbi Bartsch performed several numbers at many of the music programs.

A Cappella Choir, directed by Mr. Ekis, is composed of many talented students who audition for membership. This year much of the music centered around modern pieces, such as "Hair." Their annual presentations are the Thanksgiving Concert and Assembly, Christmas Concert and Assembly, and the Spring Concert.

Enrique De La Rosa is '70-'71 Exchange Student

Enrique Osvaldo De La Rosa, from Buenos Aries, Argentina, was this year's foreign exchange student at Neshannock. He stayed with Dr. and Mrs. David Hamilton on Forest Road. Enrique became perhaps the most well-known exchange student ever through his appearances at several assemblies in which he sang both songs from his native country and current hit tunes. Many of us got to know him as a very kind, happy person and we're sorry to see him return to Argentina.

Playing the guitar is his favorite pastime.

Enrique was a member of A Cappella Choir.

Enrique enjoys a game of pool.

Studying in preparation for his classes.

Enrique concentrates on his next move.

Voice of the Students

The student government of Neshannock High School tries to put the ideas of the students into action and has thus far been successful. One of the major issues this year was the acceptance of slacks being worn by girls to school.

Mu Alpha Theta is an honor society whose purpose is the promotion of scholarship in, and enjoyment and understanding of, mathematics among high school students.

National Honor Society is perhaps one of the most illustrious organizations of the school. It is composed of members who not only have high grade averages, but who are also active in other school activities. N.H.S. also aids students who are not members by conducting its study aid program twice weekly for students having trouble with their school work.

Mu Alpha Theta—Row 1—Miss Otto, K. Reynolds, C. Poleno, E. Colaluca, K. Acker, B. Robinson, Mr. Brown. Row 2—B. Bartsch, D. Strizzi, G. Slater, J. Kuttesch, A. Seniow, D. Mielke. Row 3—T. Massaro, M. # An Endless Searching Begins

To Find Meaning

IN TRIBUTE

Each year one teacher takes on the time consuming and sometimes frightening task of becoming class advisor. The Cartesians have had the luck to claim Mr. Hoover as their own. It is too difficult to try to include everything he has done for us in such a short space. We are grateful, Mr. Hoover, for your patience, time and faith. Thank you for the memories we have made together.

Lindsay McConahy represented Neshannock this year at the Junior Miss Pageant.

Yesterdays.

A hundred of them filled with a joy and wonder that a thousand tomorrows may never bring.
Memories.

Lingering deep in the recesses of our minds.

The events of yesterday take their final form on that day of ending which is but a new beginning.

Behind that door which we will shut on that day there are for each of us.

A thousand different things which we will put together to form a memory, our memory.

Our diploma is such a little thing to hold the accomplishments of many years.

Such an important thing to hold the key to memories.

Daily Sights At Neshannock

A break in a busy day.

Boil, boil, toil and trouble.

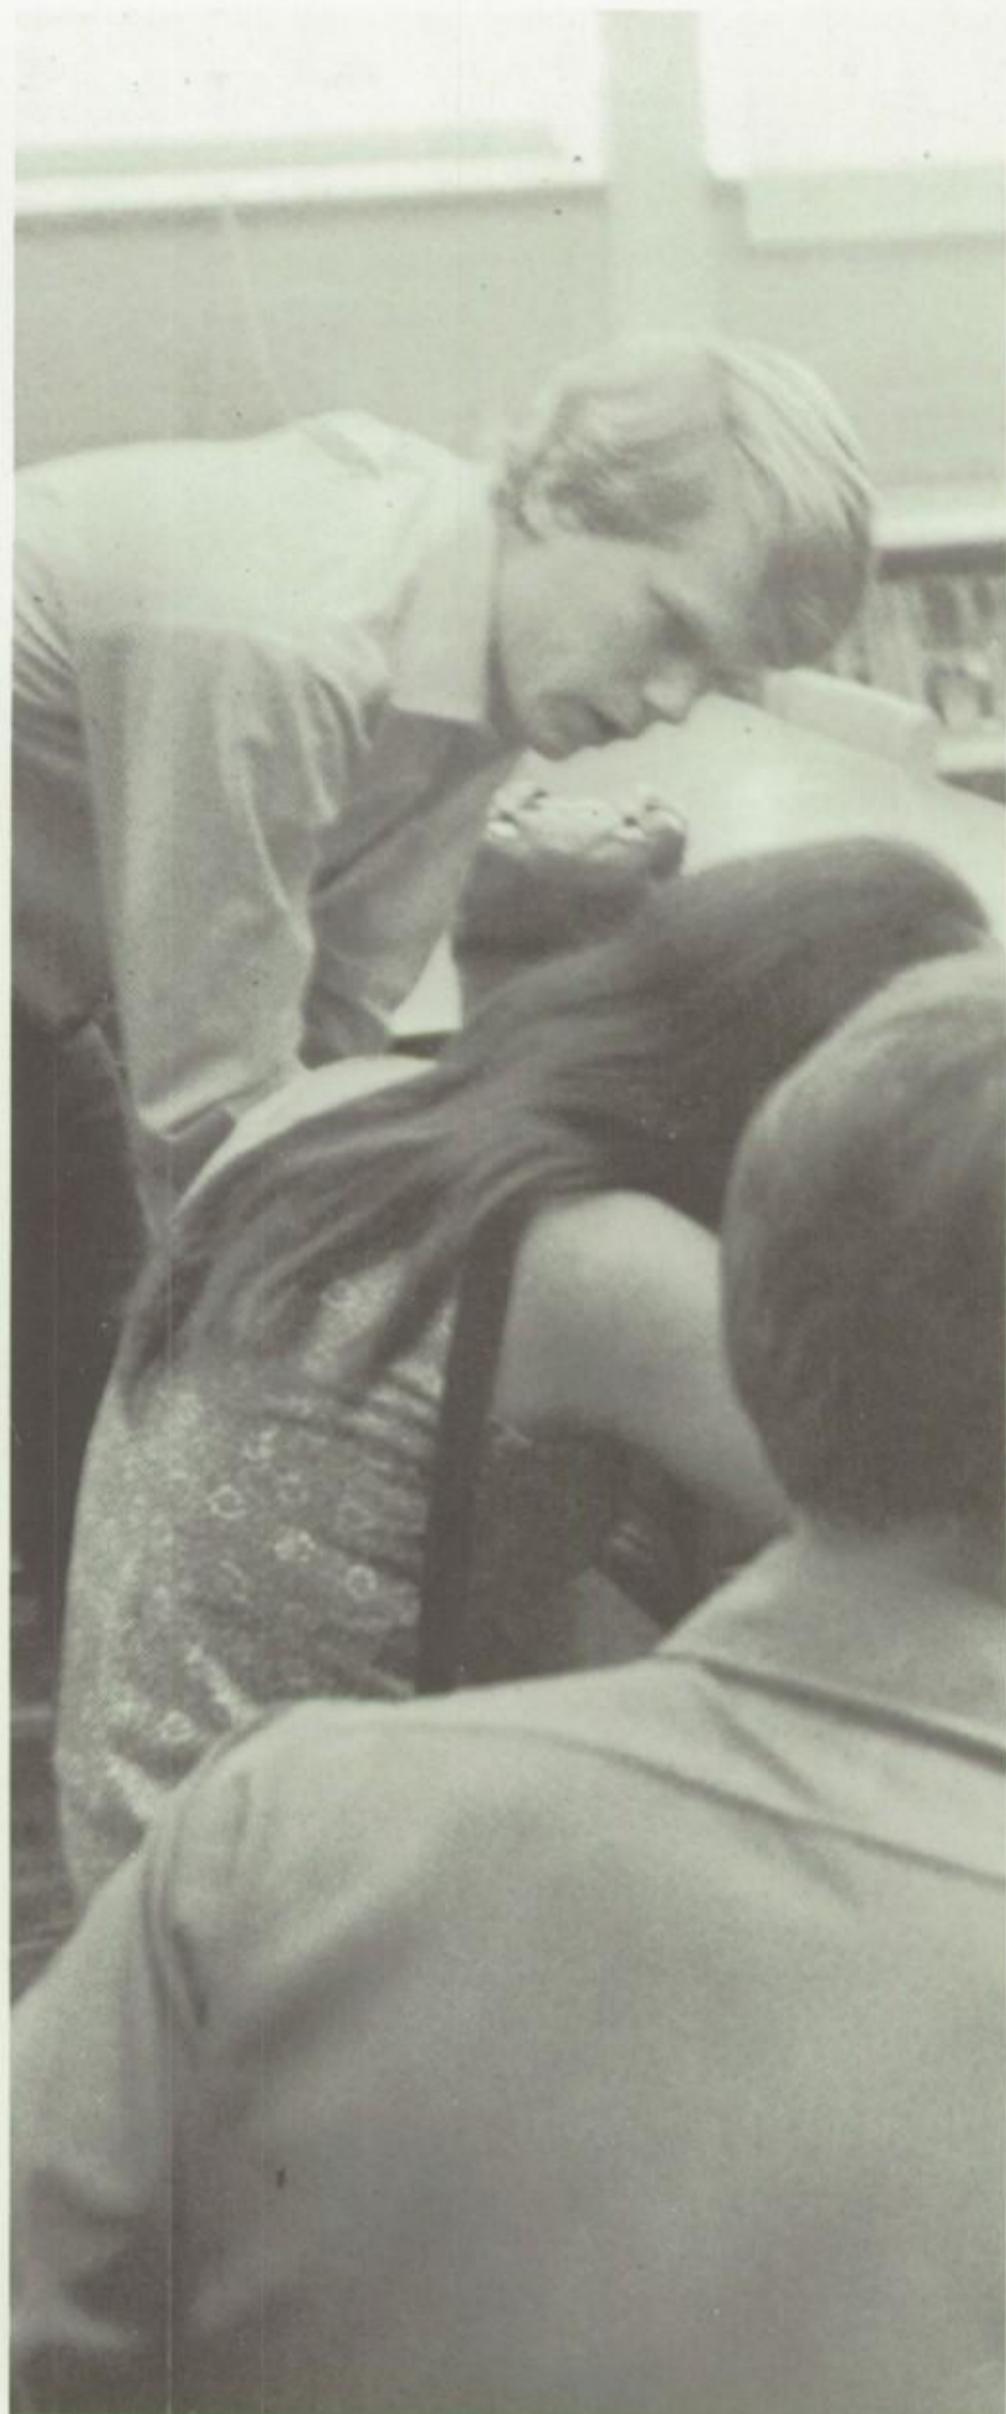

"It's a long fly ball!"

Create Grand Memories . . .

No joking in the halls!

Preparing for the next class.

You'd better get back to your seat, Rick.

Student's Many Activities

Mr. Zurasky proving his strictness.

Learning how to think.

Help Toward the Future

The road to knowledge.

Thanks

The office is empty; the typewriters are quiet, the darkroom is deserted. The 1971 Lance has gone to press. Last May just a plan page and a mass of ideas, volume 12 is now more than 160 pages, 10 signatures, and over 1200 pictures. Months of long hours, late nights, almost missed deadlines, and blown pictures are over. Yet behind as we were, we somehow managed to get this yearbook printed.

So here it is for your judgement, the 1971 Lance. Like it or dislike it as you see fit, but remember that Neshannock is 1009 things to 1009 students. We have attempted in these few pages to capture the past year for these students as they lived, learned, laughed.

First thanks should go to the business staff. Their diligent work managed the editorial staff to present this book. For the photography, I must thank Dave. He and his staff shot hundreds of pictures to achieve the best quality. I must also thank all of the section editors, who worked to create new and different features in each part of the book. With pushing deadlines and copy layouts, you never voiced a complaint. Finally, special thanks should go to Mr. Thomas, our advisor who kept both the business and the editorial in line; Mr. Evans of Consolidated Graphic Arts; and to especially Mr. Getty and Seavy's Studio for all the great work they did for us.

There's not much left to say except good luck to the 1972 staff. The past year was truly memorable in my life, and I regret to see it go. Goodbye and peace!
